

Escrow simply means that your mortgage company will be responsible for paying your home insurance bills. Your mortgage company will then increase the monthly payment amount on your house payment to include the amount that they had to pay to the insurance company.