

The Audit Trap is a situation where your cash flow is negatively impacted by the choices that you made when setting up your workers compensation insurance policy or your general liability insurance policy. Watch this video to learn how to avoid falling into this trap.