

Electronic Funds Transfer plans for paying your insurance premiums can save you time and money, but more importantly, they can reduce the chance of an accidental cancellation that might leave you holding the wrong end of the stick if you have a large loss. Watch this video to learn more.