

We think that the best time to schedule your annual audit meeting for your workers compensation or your general liability is late on a Friday afternoon. If you can then provide the auditor with complete information and certificates of insurance, you are more likely to have an audit outcome that matches your exact expectations.